

University of the Philippines
NATIONAL ENGINEERING CENTER

presents

POLLUTION CONTROL OFFICER (PCO) AND ENVIRONMENTAL MANAGEMENT TRAINING

AUGUST 26 - 28, 2009, 8AM TO 5PM, UP NEC

Using lectures, discussions and workshops, you will learn how to conduct water sampling, compose Self-Monitoring and ECC Compliance reports, as well as fill-up environmental permit forms.

Register Now!

If you want to acquire knowledge on proper environmental management, pollution abatement and significant environmental laws and regulations applicable and necessary to your organization's operations, this training is for you.

TOPICS

- DENR Functions, Mandate, Thrusts, and Functions of EMB NCR
- DAO 26: Duties and Responsibilities of a PCO and Proposed Amendments to DAO 26
- RA 1586 Environmental Impact Assessment
- Philippine Environmental Partnership Program
- LLDA Permitting Requirements.
- Environmental User Fee System (EUFS) and Compliance Monitoring Protocol
- Water Sampling and Analyses
 - Recommended Sampling Locations
 - Sampling Techniques
 - Flow Measurement
 - Sampling parameters and accredited laboratories
- RA 8749 Clean Air Act

Slots are limited.
Call (02) 922-4714 or
(02) 981-8500 ext. 3008 or send an email to nec.training@up.edu.ph to register.

Training investment is seven thousand five hundred pesos (P7,500) per participant. This includes course materials, certificate, lunch, and snacks. Payment may be in cash or in check form. Please make check payable to

UP Chemical Engineering
Alumni
Foundation, Inc.
(UP CHEAF)

