

Mendoza Cops P&G's Student Excellence Award

John Alfred H. Mendoza, a fourth year BSBA student of the UP Virata School of Business (UPVSB), was one of the nine students awarded in the Procter & Gamble Philippines' Student Excellence Awards held at Makati Shangri-La Hotel last 24 March 2014. Mendoza shall receive a P50,000 scholarship to support his final year of studies.

About 1,400 students participated in the selection process where 27 finalists from UP, Ateneo and De La Salle universities were chosen. Twelve of the 27 finalists are UP students, five from the UP Virata School of Business and 7 from the UP College of Engineering. The other four UPVSB finalists are Ma. Celina C. Barreiro, Riana Sandra G. Chua, Jacqueline T. Diaz, and Caitlin Danica P. Gregorio.

Previously only the Student Excellence Awardees were offered internship slots. This year all the 27 finalists will be offered internships in P&G Philippines (Makati headquarters and Cabuyao plant) and in P&G Singapore.

Photos credits: Procter & Gamble Philippines – Recruitment Facebook page